

Shame the BBC for inviting the Nazi BNP onto Question Time

The BBC has invited Nick Griffin, leader of the fascist BNP and a man with a criminal conviction for denying Hitler's Holocaust, onto its flagship Question Time programme on Thursday 22 October in London.

The BBC says the BNP should be treated as if it were a democratic party. But there is nothing democratic about the BNP. It is a racist and fascist organisation dedicated to kicking every single black and Asian person out of this country.

Griffin himself wrote: "When the crunch comes power is the product of force and will, not of rational debate." He isn't interested in impressing people with his arguments – he wants to back up the BNP's slogans with "well-directed boots and fists".

The BBC does not have to give Griffin a platform to spout his doctrine of race hate. It has chosen to roll out the red carpet to racists and fascists. And by doing so, it has chosen to treat black and Asian people with contempt. More airtime for the BNP will lead to more racist attacks on the streets.

If you're disgusted by Nick Griffin and appalled by the BBC's decision to host him, come join our demonstrations outside the BBC on Thursday 22 October.

No platform for Nazis • Stop racist attacks • Unite to stop the BNP
